

Let's Transform Together

Protiviti: Workday Center of Excellence

protiviti®
Global Business Consulting

Together, Protiviti and Robert Half can provide a team, subject-matter-experts and technical professionals for each stage of your enterprise resource planning (ERP) lifecycle, including strategy and selection, design and implementation, ongoing support and optimization, and business transformation services. Our flexible and comprehensive consulting and talent solutions are specifically tailored to meet your organization's needs, leveraging the combined power of Protiviti's Workday consulting and Robert Half's talent solutions.

How We Partner With You:

Protiviti has been in the Workday ecosystem for over thirteen years, has established a world-class Workday Center of Excellence (COE), and a unique Solution Design methodology to enable strategic business transformation for our clients. We work with you in various capacities based upon your specific needs, from a strategic advisory standpoint providing consultation on best practices and strategic considerations, to leading Workday implementations, to providing specific skillsets to augment your internal teams, and providing application managed services (AMS) to maintain and enhance your Workday platform and related processes.

Strategic Advisory - Teaming with you to evaluate and inject best practices into your Workday implementation and environment.

Workstream Leadership & Delivery - Managing and delivering on key elements of an implementation to relieve a capacity or experience gap or provide a more optimized cost structure.

Full Implementation Services - Serving as a full-service partner to provide a roadmap, design, configure, implement and enhance Workday applications.

Resource Augmentation - Providing temporary or full-time resources with strong Workday skills, experience, location and rate to fulfill any number of projects or back-fill related needs.

Business outcomes of our solutions

Streamline operations by leveraging Workday features and automated controls, resulting in reductions in process timing

Promote cross-functional collaboration resulting in transparency and alignment across the organization

Provide post go-live support and optimization utilizing a variety of delivery models including Managed Support Services.

Provide flexibility to support scalability and adaptability, allowing your organization to operate without significant disruptions

Our business and technology transformation professionals provide a comprehensive and collaborative solution to successfully design, implement, and support Workday. Our teams execute all system integration activities while also bridging the gap with Finance / Accounting, Technology, and Operational personnel to help our clients continue to operate at a high-level while undergoing transformation.

Case Study:

Large health system with 26 hospitals, 75,000+ employees and thousands of providers.

NEED

- Undergoing a large Workday initiative with the goal to standardize and optimize core processes, while integrating the overall health system
- High employee turnover leading to knowledge gaps and understaffed departments
- Minimal to no capacity to backfill staff fully dedicated to implementation.

SOLUTION

- Served as overall PMO, leading and coordinating key activities
- Provided workstream leads for Finance (G/L), Projects, Accounts Payable, Grants, Security and other key workstreams
- Provided resources to backfill financial resources dedicated to the project.
- Provided loan staff resources to support several workstream areas where staffing losses impacted the project area or daily processes.

BUSINESS OUTCOME

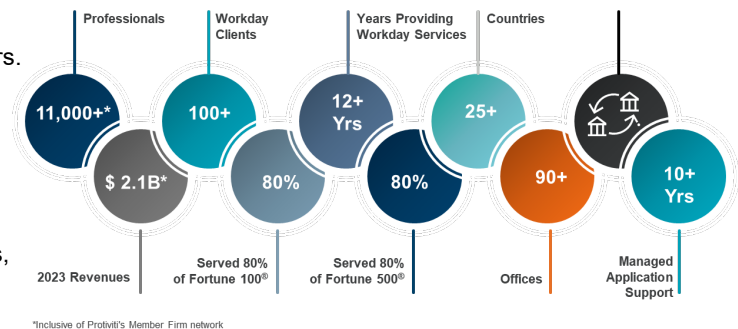

- Deployed Workday team to work seamlessly with company personnel.
- Defined expectations and improved communication to drive increased progression on all activities leading up to cutover.
- Improved management visibility on accomplishments and decisions needed.
